

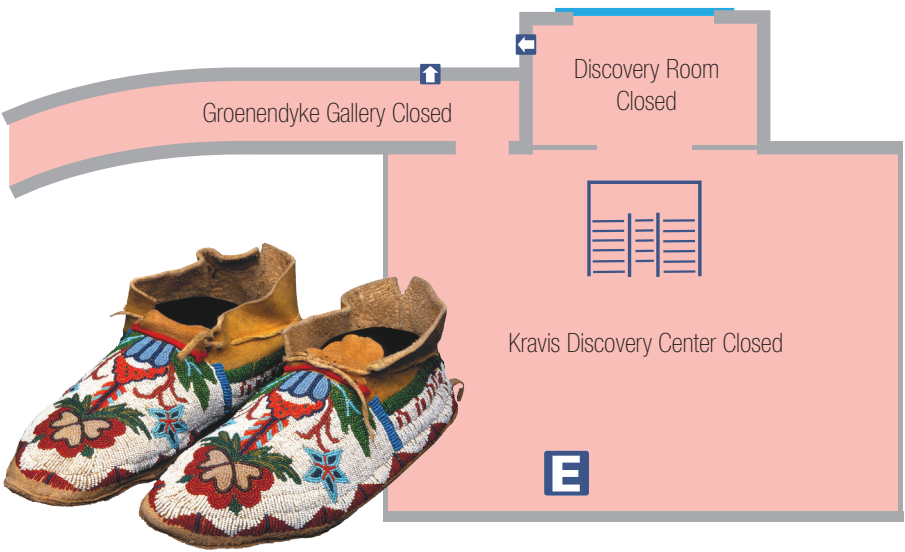

Exhibitions on display

- Myers Gallery
Masterworks from the Gilcrease Collection
(Ongoing)
- Gallery 4
Creating the Modern Southwest
(Ongoing)
- Gallery 5
Selected Works by Edward Sheriff Curtis & Jerome Richard Tiger
(Ongoing)
- Getty Gallery
Black Bodies in Propaganda: The Art of the War Poster
(April 7 through July 9, 2017)

The Power of Posters: Mobilizing the Home Front to Win The Great War
(April 7 through July 9, 2017)
- Gallery 7
Plains Indian Art: Created in Community
(Through August 27, 2017)

- Helmerich Hall and Corridor
The Essence of Place: Celebrating the Photography of David Halpern
(Ongoing)
- Gallery 8
Textured Portraits: The Ken Blackbird Collection
(through August 27, 2017)
- Gallery 9
The Kingdom of Early Mexico
(Ongoing)
- Gallery 10
Enduring Spirit: Native American Artistic Traditions

Mexican Masks
(Ongoing)
- Thomas Gilcrease Gallery
Thomas Gilcrease
(Ongoing)

- We hope you will be inspired by the collection and will explore and learn while you are here.
- Wheelchairs and strollers are available for your use. If you have a need, please ask.
 - Food or drinks are allowed on the grounds, but not in the museum. If you have a medically necessary reason to carry bottled water, please visit with our Visitor Services staff.
 - You may sketch and take notes (in pencil only) in the permanent collection galleries.
 - Some high-quality reproductions of works in our collection are sold in the Museum Store. If you see a favorite, ask about it in the store.
 - We hope you enjoy the museum’s grounds and gardens while you are here. Pick up a Garden Brochure, which will provide detailed information about the gardens and grounds at Gilcrease.

Temporarily closed from May 1 – June 30, 2017
Our new, reimagined Kravis Discovery Center will reopen in early July 2017 with state-of-the-art interactive technology to provide a dynamic visitor experience.

Gilcrease Museum Visitor Map

HELPFUL TIPS FOR YOUR VISIT

- Please check your backpack, umbrella or any bag larger than 11 x 14 inches at the Visitor Services desk. If you prefer, lockers are provided free of charge for your convenience.
- Have fun and explore the museum, but please refrain from touching art or objects on display. We are protecting it for future generations. Some items can be touched and will be noted in the galleries. Please remain an arm's length away from the art/object or gallery walls.
- Photography for personal use is generally permitted in the galleries (no flash photography, tripods, monopods or selfie sticks, please) and on the museum's grounds. Please be mindful of other visitors. Look for this icon  at gallery entrances or on artwork labels if photography is not permitted.
- Please respect the photography policies posted throughout the museum. Some artwork and artifacts may be on loan from other museums, artists or private collectors and may be protected by copyright law.

Visiting the museum or participating in a program may result in the museum taking photographs or filming video of visitors for possible use in publicity.

GILCREASE MUSEUM

Thomas Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art

