Educational Opportunities

For all members and non-members

The Computer Special Interest Group offers monthly topical presentations on genealogy research utilizing the computer. These hybrid meetings are held every second Saturday, 9 AM to Noon. The last hour of the meeting is a presentation on various features of "Legacy".

The in-person meetings are held at the OGS Resource Center at 4516 NW 16th Street, Oklahoma City. The virtual meeting is held over Zoom. See the Special Interest Groups on the OGS website for Zoom information.

Classes

Oklahoma Genealogical Society provides classes on a variety of subjects including research techniques and methodology. Classes are held throughout the year by experienced genealogists for all levels. Class may be in-person, virtual or hybrid dependent on subject matter. A list of classes may be found on our web site.

Oklahoma Genealogical Society

The Oklahoma Genealogical Society's purpose is to encourage the collection, research and preservation of Indian Territory, Oklahoma Territory and the State of Oklahoma early records. OGS also offers genealogical educational programs, publications, and workshops.

The Oklahoma Genealogical Society was established and incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Oklahoma in 1955.

OGS Resource Center

The OGS Resource Center is open
Mondays, 9 AM to 4 PM
4516 NW 16th Street. Oklahoma City, OK.

The center houses an extensive library and archive collection of local, state, US and international resources and is equipped with computers, scanners, and printers for your use. Knowledgeable genealogical and computer volunteers are on hand to assist visitors with research and advice.

Library materials are cataloged on <http://www.librarycat.org/lib/OKGENSOC/>
Archive collection finding aids are listed under Resource Center/Library on the OGS website.

Monthly Meetings and Special Events

Free general hybrid meetings are held each month on the first Monday from 6 PM to 7:30 PM.

The in-person meetings are held at the Oklahoma History Center, 800 Nazih Zuhdi Drive, Oklahoma City, OK. Register for the virtual meeting over Go-to-Webinar on the OGS website.

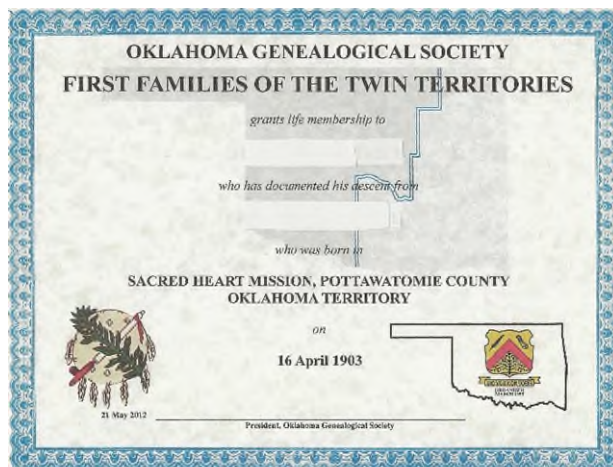

Monthly programs cover a wide range of genealogical topics by nationally recognized speakers. Topics for all events are publicized on our website: www.okgensoc.org and Facebook page Oklahoma Genealogical Society.

The First Families of the Twin Territories Lineage Society

The society recognizes, honors, and perpetuates the memory of our ancestors who were residents of the Oklahoma or Indian Territories on or before our statehood of November 16, 1907.

Once accepted, you will receive a First Families of Twin Territories pin and certificate for framing. OGS maintains a digital First Families database of family genealogies for future research.

Applications, instructions, and fees are available on the OGS website at www.okgensoc.org Lineage Groups & Projects.

Settlers and Builders of Oklahoma

Settlers and Builders of Oklahoma honor our ancestors' settling and building of the new State of Oklahoma November 16, 1907 through December 31, 1929. The honoree(s) must be documented as living in the state during the time frame listed above with a description of their contribution(s) included in the nomination. Joint applications of husband and wife can be submitted as one nomination on the same form. Documentation on both the husband and wife must be provided.

The Oklahoma Settlers and Builders registration forms and fees are available on the OGS website www.okgensoc.org Lineage Groups & Projects.
